DFG Research Group
Monies, Markets and Finance in China and East Asia, 1600-1900

Prof. Dr. Jane Kate Leonard
University of Akron, Ohio, and Mercator Guest Professor at the University of Tübingen

The Fixers: The Role of the Zhili Grain Brokers in the 1826 Sea Transport Experiment

Public Lecture Program

24 October 2008, 2-4 pm
Operational Challenges of Qing Grain Transport by Canal and Sea
Commentator: Nanny Kim

24 October 2008, 4-6 pm
Labor and Wages in the Zhili Sector of the Sea Transport Experiment
Commentator: Christine Moll-Murata

31 October 2008, 2-4 pm
The Banner Elite in Imperial Problem-Solving during the Grain Transport Crisis, 1825–1826
Commentator: Ulrich Theobald

7 November 2008, 2-4 pm
Sea Transport and the Creation of the Maritime Strategic Highway on the Northeast Coast
Commentator: Thomas Hirzel

28 November 2008, 2-4 pm
Tools for Stretching the Bureaucracy in the Qing Period: Ad hoc Bureaus (jù), Recruitment (zhaoshang), and Broker Agents (jingjiren)
Commentator: Hans Ulrich Vogel

Venue
Department of Chinese and Korean Studies (Room 30)
Wilhelmstr. 133, 72074 Tübingen